HOLIDAY CANCELLATION and CURTAILMENT PROTECTION

Unforeseen circumstances sometimes result in holiday cancellation, or problems whilst actually on holiday may result in curtailment of your holiday. Fortunately this happens in only a minority of cases but unless some form of cover is offered it can be very expensive for the unprotected holidaymaker. Therefore, included in the hire fee is Union Canal Carriers Holiday Protection Plan.

If you have to cancel or curtail your holiday solely due to one of the Qualifying Reasons set out below you can cancel your booking and receive a full refund of all monies paid to the company other than a cancellation administration fee of £35.00 per week/part week and any credit card charges.

QUALIFYING REASONS

(must apply to a member of your party)

Illness, pregnancy (subject to medical evidence of unfitness to travel), or death.
 Redundancy (provided employment has been on a continuous full time basis with the same employer for at least 24 months).
 Jury service.

Illness or death of a close relative. A close relative is defined as one of the following:- Spouse, son or daughter (in law), parent, grandparent, sister or brother, fiancée(e).

Inability to reach your holiday destination due to snow or flood or as a result of being involved in an accident on route.

Curtailment cover extends to holidays which have to be cut short for any of the qualifying reasons above. In this case you will be reimbursed for the appropriate proportion of the holiday charge. This protection only applies if the boat is vacated by all members of your holiday party. Where your holiday is curtailed for medical reasons affecting any member of your holiday party you will need to produce a certificate from a local doctor confirming the necessity of returning home.

N.B. Cancellation and curtailment in all cases must mean cancellation of the booking for the period concerned; it cannot involve partial refunds to individual members making up the holiday party.

The following charges will apply if you change or cancel your holiday for a non-qualifying reason.
